Brussels, November 2026

TRAINEESHIP OPPORTUNITY: POLICY ASSISTANT
EACB PRUDENTIAL AFFAIRS AND SUSTAINABLE FINANCE TEAM

Location: Brussels
Starting Date: 1 March 2027
Duration: 5-6 months
Application Deadline: 31 December 2026

THE POSITION

The European Association of Co-operative Banks (EACB) represents, promotes and defends the interests of banks that are based on the cooperative as a form of enterprise. It unites 2,300 cooperative banks across Europe, serving over 224 million customers and contributing to a more inclusive, sustainable and diversified banking model through advocacy at EU and global level.

The EACB is looking for a motivated and detail-oriented trainee to join the Team in charge of Prudential Affairs, Banking Union, Sustainability, Reporting, Taxation, Governance and support its policy and advocacy work related to EU and international regulatory developments.

During your traineeship you will be a full member of a committed and collaborative team, working on key policy workstreams related to banking supervision and financial stability, Social Dialogue activities, and sustainability related topics, among others.

Your Main Responsibilities Will Include:

- Monitoring EU regulatory and policy developments in relevant areas
- Supporting the team's advocacy efforts and stakeholder engagement, including outreach to EU institutions and other actors
- Conducting research and drafting summaries of reports, publications, or consultations of interest to our members
- Preparing materials for internal and external meetings (briefing notes, slides, minutes, etc.)
- Assisting with the logistical and administrative organisation of meetings and events
- Providing ad hoc support to other team members depending on priorities and workload
